

Install Android APK from other sources than Google Play Store

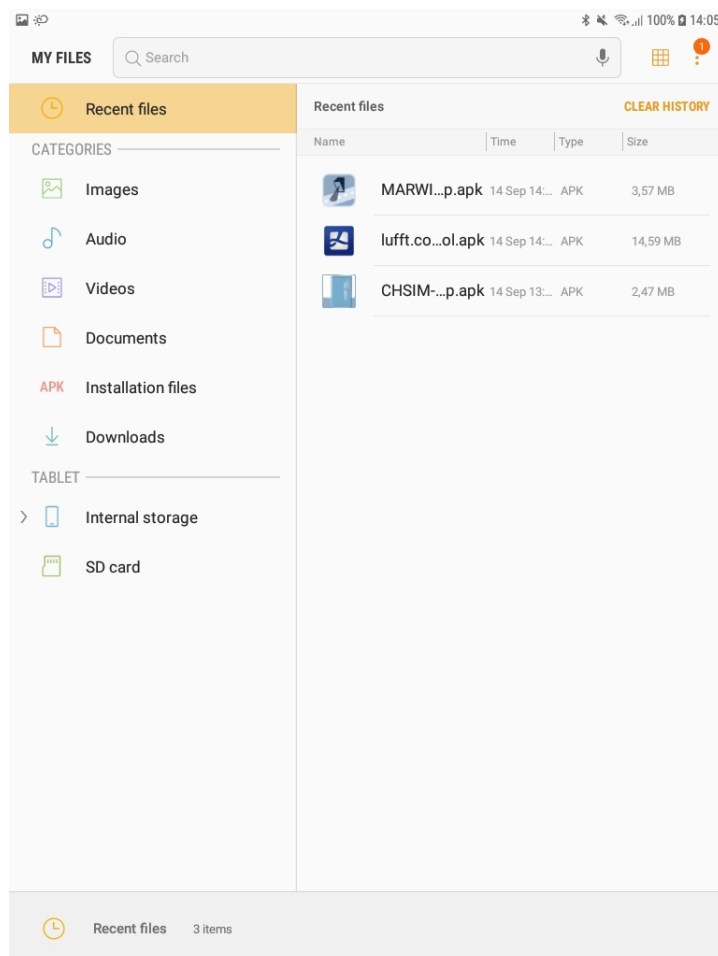

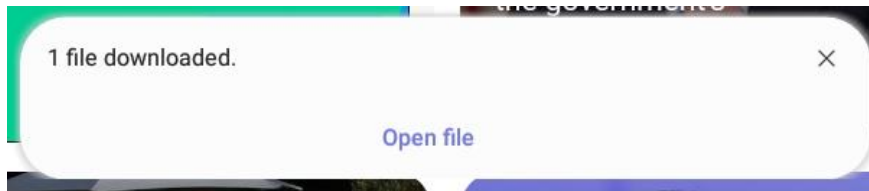

To install an Android App (APK) from another source than the Google Play Store you first need to enable this in the Settings of your Android device: Open Settings and enable an entry similar to „Unknown sources “.

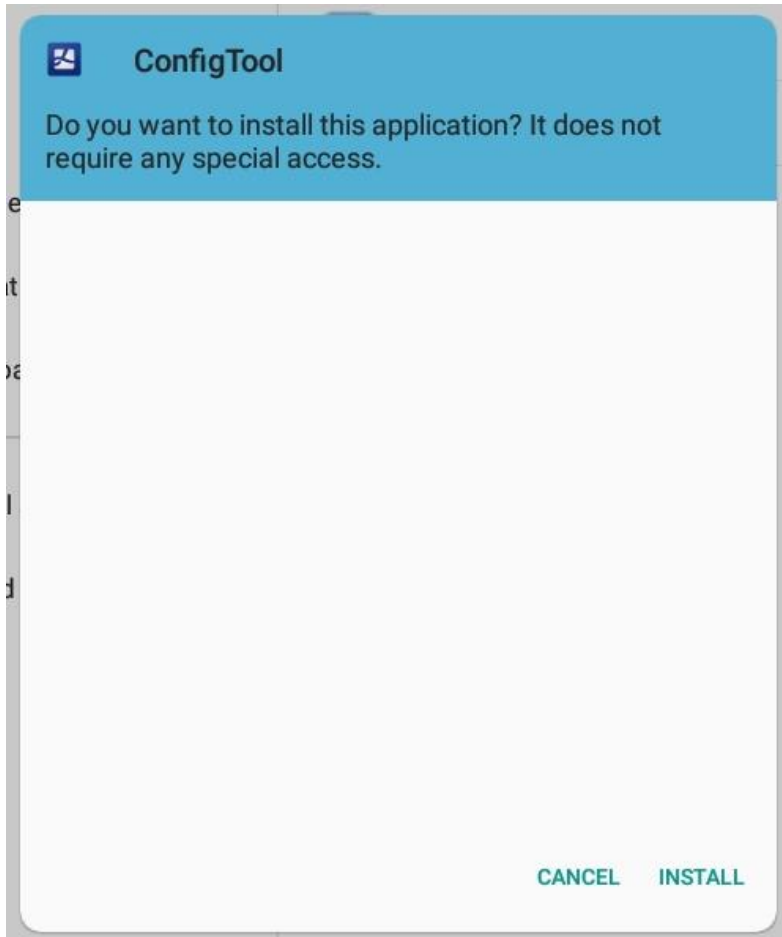

Go to the Lufft website and accept the APK download.

After downloading the file open it directly or via a file explorer.

Click on the APK file and click "Install"

The App is now ready.